Names and Persons in the Current News

At the socialist convention at Cleveland, Ohio, where Norman Thomas was nominated for President of the United States, Miguel Mariano Gomez of Cuba, behind the chair, accepting the transfer of office from Proctor in Havana. 3—Impression machines in the bureau of engraving and printing in Washington.

Paying Homage to the Conquerors

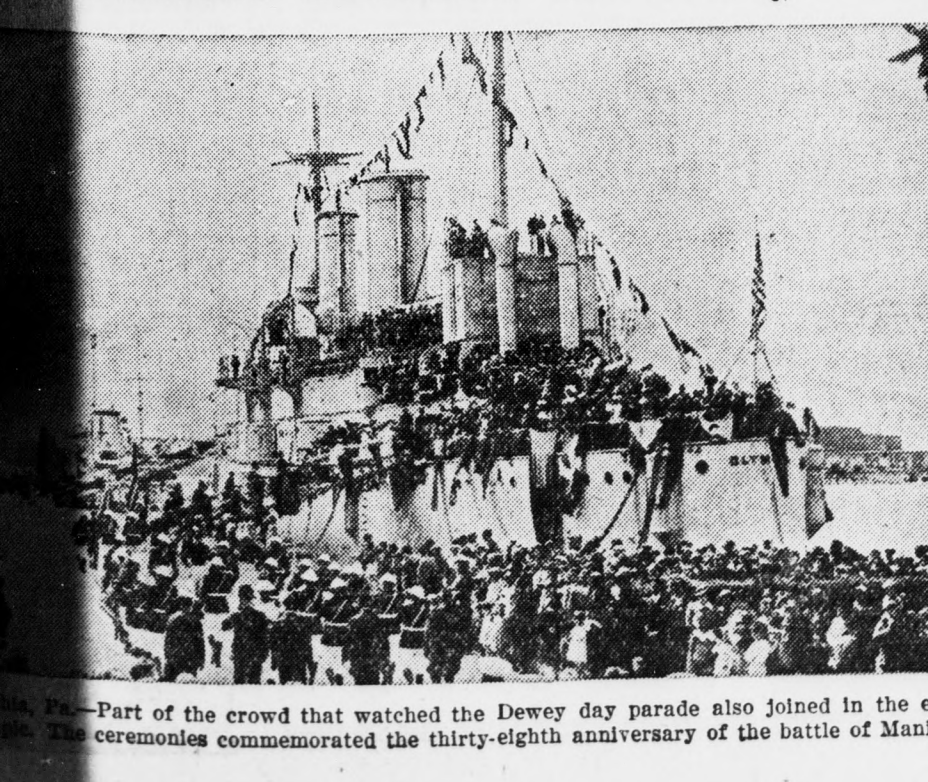

Led by their aged chieftain, these conquered Ethiopian natives give an awkward attempt at the Fascist salute as they greet the smartly garbed general, Rodolfo Graziani, leader of 11 Duces' southern armies in Ethiopia.

"Gold King" Stocks Come Back

John W. Hausermann, so-called "Gold King" of the Philippines, arrived in Washington from Manila, De.

Memorative Exercises on Dewey's Flagship

Part of the crowd that watched the Dewey day parade also joined in the exercises aboard the USS Dewey, which commemorated the thirty-eighth anniversary of the battle of Manila Bay.

WHY THE CROWD?

Griffiths was the father of 12 children, and he decided to take them all to the seaside. They set off, reached the station, got their tickets, and were about to enter the train when the proud parent was touched on the shoulder by a policeman, states London Tit-Bits.

"What have you been doing?" the constable demanded.

"Me? Why, nothing!" stammered the surprised man.

The policeman waved his hand towards the family.

"Then why," he asked, "is this crowd following you?"

FASHION HINT

"Merciful Providence! what a narrow escape. When did the savages attack you?"

"Oh! you mean the arrow in my hat? I stuck it there," "re all the rage."

Good Foundation

The managers, looking extremely sorry, approached the customer's table.

"I'm sorry," she said, "that you have found fault with my cakes. The business of this cafe has been built almost entirely on my cooking."

"Madam," replied the customer, "I see no reason to doubt it. With a few more buns like these you could build a hotel!"—Stray Stories Magazine.

Sailing the World

"Halt," yelled the sergeant to a new squad of recruits. But one of them marched on.

"Here, Jones, what were you doing before you joined the army?" yelled the sergeant.

"A horse driver, sir," replied Jones.

When the squad was marching again the sergeant cried: "Squad halt! Jones, whoa!"—Stray Stories Magazine.

Too Tempting

"He won't hurt you," Bobbie's mother reassured her small son who always was terror-stricken when a dog approached.

"Yes, he will, mother," protested Bobbie. "I saw him eat a whole pig of bones."—Capper's Weekly.

No Sandwich Either

Customer—I want two small sandwiches, a pound of assorted meats, a nice oak handle for my hammer, and a pot cluster for my misers.

Clerk—Sorry, my friend, but this is an old-fashioned drug store.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

Her Best Years

"How can you talk to me like that," she wailed, "after I've given you the best years of my life?"

"Yeah," returned the husband, unimpressed by her emotion. "And who made 'em the best years of your life?"

OH, WAITER!

"Mary had a little lamb—" "Well, what's the rest of the combination breakfast?"

Working Overtime

"How's your bungalow? You told me it was cooled by woodland breezes in the summer."

"That part was all right, but the landlord is working overtime. Now he's trying to heat it solely with the sun."

On and Off

Tootle—The Hologans are certainly putting on the dog these days.

Cornett—Yes; and they are certainly putting on a lot of creditors to do it.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Great Fighter

Recruiting Officer—Are you sure you want to enlist for this war?

Applicant—Yes, sir, I do. I belong to the fighting Marines and we never miss a scrap. I want to enlist for the duration of the war, or longer if it keeps up that long.

Good Reason

Brown—I hear you have resigned from the Anti-Profraternity society.

Johnson—Yes, I've bought a second-hand car and am learning to play golf.

Dark and Light Lilac Motif for Embroidering on Your Bedspread

PATTERN 1152

Dark and light lilac, tied with a flourish into the loveliest of floral sprays, is far and away the nicest—and easiest—floral touch one can give a bedroom. Even an amateur will find the large spray easy to embroider on a bedspread with four smaller sprays on the bolster, or scarf ends. The flowers are entirely French knots, the leaves of blanket stitch—the rest is in outline. With cotton or rayon floss the designs are seemingly done in no time, in shades of lilac, orchid, or palest yellow.

Pattern 1152 comes to you with a transfer pattern of a motif 18 by 21 inches and two reverse motifs 4 by 5 1/2 inches. Color suggestions: lilac.

All Around the House

When making cinnamon toast cut bananas in thin slices, arrange on toast, sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon and brown under the broiler.

If cherries or berries are rolled in flour before putting them into the pie crust the juice will be thickened and will not run out.

Squeeze into a tumbler the juice of half a lemon and fill with grapes. Served cold this makes a delicious drink.

A tablespoon of lemon juice added to the egg in which fish is dipped before frying gives it a delicious flavor.

Before polishing mahogany furniture wash well with warm water and white soap and dry thoroughly.

Fruit juices and ginger ale may be frozen into cubes in a mechanical refrigerator and used for iced drinks.

To remove mildew from a leather bag, rub with petroleum oilment and allow it to remain on bag until mildew comes off easily.

HOW FAR CAN YOU GO BEFORE HE SAYS...

"You need a quart!"

New Way to MEASURE OIL VALUE

After you drain and refill your crankcase, how far do you go before you have to add the first quart? If you don't know, it's worth checking. This simple test gives you the real measure of oil economy and oil quality, too. Because the oil that stands up best between refills is giving your motor the best lubrication. Try the "First Quart" Test with Quaker State. See if you don't go farther than you ever did with any other oil under similar driving conditions. Quaker State Oil Refining Company, Oil City, Pa.
